AZALEAS.

HARDY GHENT AZALEAS,

CROWNED AT THE GRAND INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION AT ANTWERP, BRUSSELS, GHENT, ETC.

These hybrids derive from the Turkish Azalea pontica, artificially fecundated with various american types. From these, the Flemish have succeeded in raising a series of the most splendid hybrids universally known by the name GHENT AZALEAS. As the name indicates, it is to Ghent that the horticultural world is indebted for the immense variety of these large-flowered magnificent hybrids, which now form such an invaluable aid in the decoration of the flower garden during the spring.

TO BE HAD FROM MIDDLE OF SEPTEMBER TILL MARCH.

AZALEA INDICA.

All the novelties noted hereafter have been prized at the Exhibition of Antwerp, Brussels, Ghent, Liége, London, etc., and all were raised from seed in this Establishment by our expert foreman Fr. De Taeye.

Novelties of 1878.

791. Madame L. Van Houtte (L. Van Houtte). A first class variety, large and well-made flower, of a most tender scarlet rose, border of lobes striped with snow white, with a light amaranth spot upon the three upper lobes; very free-flowering during more than five weeks.

Small plants . . . . . 12/.
Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 24/.
Strong plants, with buds . . . . . 40/.

799. Mademoiselle Marie Planchon (L. Van Houtte). Semi-double, well-made flower with undulated lobes of the purest snow white; a variety of great merit obtained a prize at the Laeken-Brussels Exhibition without competing for one.

Small plants . . . . . 8/.
Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 14/6.
Strong plants, with buds . . . . . 24/.

892. Comte Charles de Kerchove de Denterghem (L. Van Houtte). Large, single, undulated and well-formed flower, very light rose ground, bordered with white, striped and dotted with carmine, the upper three lobes are ornated with a splendid lively carmine blotch; very free-flowering.

Small plants . . . . . 8/.
Medium-sized plants . . . . . 14/6.
Strong plants, with buds . . . . . 24/.

Novelties of 1877.

786 Louis Lubbers (L. Van Houtte). Very large and superb flower of a splendid varnish-like orange red, of a delicate texture with large and well-defined blotch of a deep crimson, contrasting admirably with the orange red corolla. — Unanimously prized at the great International Exhibition of 1876, at Brussels. — Fine novelty of first class, very free-flowering and of a beautiful habit.

Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 8/.
Strong plants, with buds . . . . . 16/.

795. Remembrance of Lady Florence Hastings (L. Van Houtte). The finest novelty of the single white varieties, of excellent shape, very free-flowering and exquisite pure white large and well-formed flowers; this variety does not possess that yellow hue towards the throat as is the case with the white varieties existing; it gained with acclamation the first prize at the International Exhibition of 1875, at Antwerp, as a seedling, then named « Queen of Beauty; » but considering its perfect pure white as a symbol of purity and innocence, we have renamed it and dedicated it to the memory of the lady whose name it bears, who it will be remembered was many years ago — the object of a most unfounded and injustifiable suspicion.

Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 8/.
Strong plants, with buds . . . . . 16/.

Novelties of 1876.

537. Mad. Charles Van Eeckhaute (L. Van Houtte). Prized with acclamation at more than ten exhibitions. — A quite exceptional perfection; its flowers, measuring 2 1/2 inches across, borne upon very short peduncles, are the largest existing among the Azalea indica; form irreproachable with fringe of petals slightly undulated; colour of a matchless snow white; a variety very free-flowering, full as the most double Carnation.

Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 12/.
Strong plants, with buds. . . . . . 20/.

535. W. Wilson Saunders (L. Van Houtte). A first class novelty, honoured with first prizes at the Antwerp, Brussels and Ghent Exhibition; very large flower, single, of a white flesh-colour, striped and dotted with lively red; large rounded divisions; form flat; a very free-flowering variety.

Medium-sized plants, with buds. . . . . . 4/.
Strong plants, with buds . . . . . 8/.

Novelties of 1875.

636. Argus (L. Van Houtte). The amateurs favourite; Argus has partaken of the victories which our seedlings carried off everywhere. Its flowers are sometimes single, sometimes semi-double, the form of which is irreproachable; their colours are of light salmon ground covering themselves with magisterial imperial black, crimson reflex.

Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 2/6.
Strong plants, with buds. . . . . . 5/.

683. John Gould Veitch (L. Van Houtte) (Flore, XX, 43). The renown of this variety is known everywhere; in England as also on the Continent, it has been crowned with the first prizes. Its shape and grand colouring remind much of our excellent variety Sigismond Rücker; but what a struggle between these two rivals, to become the supreme favourite, both as regards their finely tissued and veined flower!

Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 2/6 to 3/3.
Strong plants, with buds. . . . . . 4/10 to 5/8.

Novelties of 1874.

587. Sigismond Rücker (L. Van Houtte) (Flore, XIX, 135). Awarded a first class certificate at the Kensington Exhibition. Was in Louis Van Houtte's three Azalea groups, which have three times been awarded the first prize. Flowers lilac rose, strongly netted and bordered with white; blotch splendid, bright saffron red.

Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 1/8.
Strong plants, with buds. . . . . . 2/6 to 20/.

594. Madem. Louise de Kerchove (L. Van Houtte) (FLORE, XIX, 131). One of the most admired varieties that were awarded prizes at the last great Ghent Exhibition. Large snow white festoons encircle the bright flesh-coloured flowers, flaked with orange ; blotches finely worked with maroon, shaded with carmine : a quite new colouring.

Medium-sized plants, with buds . . . . . 1/8.
Strong plants, with buds . . . . . 3/3.

665. Dr D. Moore (L. Van Houtte). Awarded a first class certificate at the Regent's Park Show. Flowers of the most intense rose with white and violet reflex, of perfect form.

CAMELLIAS.

Selection of the choicest varieties.

This collection has been selected with the greatest care; all sorts which were not of first quality, both as regard to the general habit of the plants themselves, as well as the perfection of the flowers, have been discarded; all varieties in which the flowers were in any way imperfect, or which were not considered to flower freely, as well as those which instead of forming handsome bushy plants, had a tendency to throw up long straggling branches, thus forming unsightly specimens, have ceased to occupy a place in my collection.

N. B. In the cultivations of the Camellias, the use of chemical ingredients or impure water, in order to obtain unnaturally an exuberance of foliage, has never been resorted to; the pure water of the Schelde with a slight addition of cow manure, once or twice during the growing season, is the only stimulant here made use of.

N. B. The prices in the first column (left hand apply to old grafts about one foot high or of an equal strength; the prices as fixed in the right hand column are for bushy plants, the greater part of which are with buds. — The Camellias furnished are healthy and well-rooted; they are frequently stronger than indicated, and can be sent at any time, except during the months from March to July, their growing season.

RHODODENDRONS FOR THE GREENHOUSE AND CONSERVATORY.

HIMALAYAN, etc., RHODODENDRONS.

Most amateurs do not know that, in vast mountainous countries, exist Rhododendrons of so extraordinary large and beautiful flowers, the most of them are figured in Dr Joseph Dalton Hooker's immortal work. They are represented in large in folio plates and still it was sometimes necessary to reduce the natural dimensions of their leaves. The surface of a single leaf of Rhododendron Falconeri is equal in size to the surfaces of ten leaves of Rh. ponticum, and a single flower of the snow white Rhododendron Nuttalli measures about half a yard in its outline. — What a difference between these and our hardy varieties! Their foliage is most splendid, underneath of a cinnamon or silver colour, and sometimes covered with thick wool as with Rh. Edgeworthi.

HALF-HARDY RHODODENDRONS.

The most of the Rhododendrons, united into this section, stand the common winters out of doors, but will be destroyed by severe cold. It is therefore preferable to grow them in pots and give them a place in the conservatory during the winter, where their magnificent flowers will develop early in the spring, and for a long time continue to be the principal adornment.

FLORE
DES SERRES ET DES JARDINS DE L'EUROPE,
GENERAL HORTICULTURAL ANNALS,

COMPRISING

ALL CONCERNING USEFUL AND ORNAMENTAL GARDENING, THE CULTURE OF IN AND OUTDOOR PLANTS, KITCHEN GARDEN PLANTS, ORNAMENTAL, FOREST AND FRUIT TREES; THE DESCRIPTION OF NEW IMPORTED PLANTS, TRAVELLING RECITALS, GARDEN ARCHITECTURE, HYDRAULIC AND HEATING APPARATUSES, GARDEN INSTRUMENTS; EXAMINATION OF QUESTIONS OF NATURAL HISTORY, METEOROLOGY, GEOLOGY AND PHYSICS, WHICH MUST DIRECTLY CONCERN THE CULTURE, ETC.

Twenty-one volumes of this splendid work are now completed, containing 226 beautifully coloured plates, all executed in the first style of art, nearly 2300 wood cuts and 2300 articles relating to horticulture. Entire sets, comprising the twenty-one volumes of the FLORE DES SERRES, are still to be had. Price in Ghent 29-12. Five per cent will be allowed for cash payment.

The first nine numbers of the XXII[nd] volume of the FLORE are ready and numbers 10, 11 and 12 will appear in October.

For terms of payment, private agreements are made with parties desiring the entire work, but the price can not be reduced.

The first volumes are immediately despatched to those who like to pay an about a third of the price, viz: £ 13-12 when ordering, £ 8 one year later a at the end of the second year. — Few complete sets are still to be dispose it is evident that it would be materially impossible to think of the reprinti 2261 coloured plates and 2300 engravings: it would be a work of a quart century and which publisher would undertake such a herculean task?

☞ To facilitate our arrangement in executing ord s, parties favoring us with them, are respectfully requested to ALWAYS WRITE THE NAME AND ADDRESS LEGIBLY AND IN FULL; letters and orders have come to hand where the signature and the address were so illegible that we could not attend to them and in some cases were missing altogether. — All orders are on receipt acknowledged by an autographed circular, therefore, those sending orders and not receiving this in return within a reasonable time, will please send us a duplicate of same. — Many persons when they have sent their order and not receiving the goods within a week or so, imagine that by sending us voluminous letters on the subject they can further the expedition, — in the busy season we receive hundreds of orders daily, and it is the rule to execute them in the rotation in which they come to hand, we can on no account delay orders, received first, for others coming late in the season and requiring our attention at once, i. e. in a few days or not at all; — all orders should be sent as early as possible and thus insure prompt attention; — To avoid confusion, the order should be written apart from the text of the letter, mentioning the line of rail and the nearest station the goods must be sent to.
